

Celebrating 50 years of Teaching at UW

www.teaching.uwaterloo.ca

Presidents' Colloquium on Teaching and Learning

Dr. Ken Bain

Vice-Provost for Instruction and Director
Teaching and Learning Resource Center,
Montclair State University, New Jersey

Monday, April 30, 2007

2:00 pm - 3:30 pm

Humanities Theatre, Hagey Hall

Wine & Cheese to follow, Humanities Theatre foyer

“What Makes Great Teachers Great?”

How do the best teachers help their students to achieve remarkable learning?

Dr. Ken Bain, award-winning teacher, scholar and author, explores the major conclusions of his fifteen-year study of sixty-three successful university teachers who achieved their success by creating “natural, critical, learning environments.”

In this highly interactive talk, participants will consider the essential elements needed to create that environment.

Dr. Ken Bain is the author of the award-winning What the Best College Teachers Do

(Harvard University Press, 2004).

He has received numerous awards for his research in teaching and learning as well as his scholarship on the history of U.S. foreign policy in the Middle East.

Organized by the Teaching Excellence Council (TEC)
and supported by the President of UW,
the President of the Faculty Association of UW and St. Jerome's University

